Chapter 1 by Story Wars

You know that harm feeling that she's just the right one for you? Oh boy, what pleasure that was. But it didn't just start off all happy.

Actually it was hard to earn that lovely feeling and that harm fuzzy feeling to know that you are loved.

Falling for someone was a hard thing, first of all out of the distance she hits you with an arrow that makes you instantly fall in love. When i first saw her, i was speechless and my heart instantly raced!

Boy was it hard not to keep your eyes off of her. It's funny how she never really cared about you at the beginning but at the end leaving each others sight was unbearable.

It wasn't long until we started dating, oh boy it was awesome. The moment you realized that she likes you to was like a moment of heaven on earth. But haven't realized what was among us.

The first couple months were awesome, but then we started to have doubts about each other.

Back and fourth we thought we didn't love each other. We've broken each others heart countless times but why do we even bother to keep each other alive?
